

Starting tomorrow [Tuesday, 28-Jan-2013], for 10 days "collect" data about the estimated energy consumed in the area you had identified earlier -- for each of the 10 days.

Yes, you can use any means to collect the needed data, as long as you can argue that the estimate is credible.

No, you can not use any smart meters.