

MANIFESTO

SWATI ANAND, 173050008, swaati@cse.iitb.ac.in, 9971375957

If I get elected for the post of PG Social Secretary, I will leave no stone unturned in dutifully fulfilling my responsibilities and do the following. I will

- Conduct sessions before events to increase awareness about the events and promote participation
- Personally talk to juniors and batchmates to understand their interests personally and motivate them to participate actively in their events of interest
- Proactively talk to juniors immediately after their arrival in institute to get them excited about cultural and tell them about the cultural calendar of the institute and department
- Increase participation of department in institute events by personally talking to students and reducing the participation anxiety
- Participate in as many cultural events as possible to inspire and motivate people to participate more
- Take feedback from students about events and will help the OCs of the event with the improvement of the same and hence making institute cultural a better place to be at.
- Help other council members
- Help the department to maintain and improve the cultural stature in institute
- Conduct workshops by experts to prepare the department team for competitions
- Make students aware of the events as soon as possible
