Each student is required to bring his/her IITB id card, and place it on his/her exam desk for the duration of the exam. Invigilators: Prof. Saketh, Prof. Suyash Awate, Prof. Bharat Adsul, Prof. Ajit Rajwade, Prof. Ajit Diwan, Prof. Bhaskar

Instructions for Invigilators:

- Be present at least 20 minutes before the slated time.
- You will have to support the faculty members for distributing the q-papers, collecting answer sheets, etc. whatever is needed for smooth conduct of exam.
- In case the exam time gets extended, you will have to wait till the end of the exam.
- Note also that seating arrangements have been made to ensure a significant gap between students taking the same exam. You must follow the rules in this regard, which have been put up on the board of each room, with these rules will also be applicable for mid sem exams in future.

Students will have to bring their own water-bottles. No water breaks allowed outside the exam hall.

Bathroom visits are not allowed for the first two hours, barring medical emergencies. Instructor permission is necessary for bathroom visits after the first two hours.

Each student is required to bring his/her IITB id card, and place it on his/her exam desk for the duration of the exam.

Invigilators: Prof. Saketh, Prof. Suyash Awate, Prof. Bharat Adsul, Prof. Ajit Rajwade, Prof. Ajit Diwan, Prof. Bhaskar

Instructions for Invigilators:

- Be present at least 20 minutes before the slated time.
- You will have to support the faculty members for distributing the q-papers, collecting answer sheets, etc. whatever is needed for smooth conduct of exam.
- In case the exam time gets extended, you will have to wait till the end of the exam.
- Note also that seating arrangements have been made to ensure a significant gap between students taking the same exam. You must follow the rules in this regard, which have been put up on the board of each room, with these rules will also be applicable for mid sem exams in future.

Students will have to bring their own water-bottles. No water breaks allowed outside the exam hall.

Bathroom visits are not allowed for the first two hours, barring medical emergencies. Instructor permission is necessary for bathroom visits after the first two hours.

Each student is required to bring his/her IITB id card, and place it on his/her exam desk for the duration of the exam.

Invigilators: Prof. Saketh, Prof. Suyash Awate, Prof. Bharat Adsul, Prof. Ajit Rajwade, Prof. Ajit Diwan, Prof. Bhaskar

Instructions for Invigilators:

- Be present at least 20 minutes before the slated time.
- You will have to support the faculty members for distributing the q-papers, collecting answer sheets, etc. whatever is needed for smooth conduct of exam.
- In case the exam time gets extended, you will have to wait till the end of the exam.
- Note also that seating arrangements have been made to ensure a significant gap between students taking the same exam. You must follow the rules in this regard, which have been put up on the board of each room, with these rules will also be applicable for mid sem exams in future.

Students will have to bring their own water-bottles. No water breaks allowed outside the exam hall.

Bathroom visits are not allowed for the first two hours, barring medical emergencies. Instructor permission is necessary for bathroom visits after the first two hours.

Each student is required to bring his/her IITB id card, and place it on his/her exam desk for the duration of the exam.

Invigilators: Prof. Saketh, Prof. Suyash Awate, Prof. Bharat Adsul, Prof. Ajit Rajwade, Prof. Ajit Diwan, Prof. Bhaskar

Instructions for Invigilators:

- Be present at least 20 minutes before the slated time.
- You will have to support the faculty members for distributing the q-papers, collecting answer sheets, etc. whatever is needed for smooth conduct of exam.
- In case the exam time gets extended, you will have to wait till the end of the exam.
- Note also that seating arrangements have been made to ensure a significant gap between students taking the same exam. You must follow the rules in this regard, which have been put up on the board of each room, with these rules will also be applicable for mid sem exams in future.

Students will have to bring their own water-bottles. No water breaks allowed outside the exam hall.

Bathroom visits are not allowed for the first two hours, barring medical emergencies. Instructor permission is necessary for bathroom visits after the first two hours.

Each student is required to bring his/her IITB id card, and place it on his/her exam desk for the duration of the exam.

Invigilators: Prof. Saketh, Prof. Suyash Awate, Prof. Bharat Adsul, Prof. Ajit Rajwade, Prof. Ajit Diwan, Prof. Bhaskar

Instructions for Invigilators:

- Be present at least 20 minutes before the slated time.
- You will have to support the faculty members for distributing the q-papers, collecting answer sheets, etc. whatever is needed for smooth conduct of exam.